LATEST NEWS OF THE DAY

Want Wright Back.

MANILA, NOV. 3.—The public reception to Gov. Wright to-day was the most brilliant affair of the kind ever given in the Philippines. The hope was generally expressed that Gov. Wright would return to the islands. The parade took three hours in passing the point where the Governor was stationed.

3 Hurt in Wreck.

DALLAS, TEX., NOV. 3.—A passenger train on the Houston and Texas Central to-day was derailed near Ennis by an explosion of the locomotive. Seven coaches left the track but none of the passengers were seriously injured. Three of the crew were fatally hurt.

Reprimand for Young.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The record in the court-martial of Commander Lucien Young, of the Beaulieu, was received at the Navy Department to-day, and is now under review. It is understood the sentence of the Court is a severe reprimand.

Eloped with a Child.

ELMHURST, NOV. 2.—Albert Conklin, aged thirty-five years, was arrested to-day charged with the abduction of Laura Tabor, a fifteen-year-old girl, of New York, near Elmhurst. The couple came to Elmhurst yesterday and were married, the bride giving her age as eighteen.

Given Up Ship Safe.

SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 3.—The French ship Duchesse de Berry has arrived here, two hundred days from Swatara, being forty days overdue. Her insurance on her had been quoted at 30 per cent.

Killed Wife with Axe.

JEROME MAY BE AN EVEN-MONEY RISK

Odds on Him Shorten to 3 to 5—McClellan Running Behind in Betting.

Curiously enough the odds on Jerome were shortened on the curb in Wall street to-day notwithstanding the adverse decision of the Appellate Division yesterday. The closing odds last night were 5 to 1 against his election. To-day the opening price was 5 to 3. It was predicted last night by some wags that the odds on Jerome would be much greater to-day but the actual quotations indicate that he may be even money before Election Day.

An ominous fact for Mayor McClellan to-day is a drop of half a point in the odds laid on him to win. He closed to-day at 2 to 1 to 1. He was little of his money in sight.

In the afternoon the betting on Jerome shortened to 10 to 7. P. Schuch bet $100 on Jerome with C. H. Dewitt on the Detroit-Attorney's chance. Mr. Schuch also bet $100 on Jerome on the field against McClellan. The odds against Hearst remained at 5 to 1. The betting against Ivins is 5 to 1.

Michael J. Cruise, of No. 337 Second avenue, one of Charles F. Murphy's henchmen in the Eighteenth Assembly District, announced to-day that he had $100,000 to bet against $100,000 that Mayor McClellan will be re-elected. He also offered to bet $50,000 to $50,000 that Mayor McClellan's vote will exceed that of Hearst and Ivins combined.

Mr. Cruise showed the real money in Wall street. It has been handed to several commissionaires who will attempt to place it at the Hoffman House to-night and on the curb to-morrow. This amount will probably establish the McClellan odds at 4 to 1 until the close of the campaign.

DOCTOR IS IN JAIL FOR CUTTING UP SUIT CASE GIRL

McLeod, M. D., Taken in Custody in Boston as a Result of Confessions Made in This City in Murder of Susanna Geary.

(Special to The Evening World.) BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Dr. Percy D. McLeod, of No. 187 Huntington avenue, this city, was arrested this afternoon on the charge of criminal malpractice in connection with the suit-case mystery. The arrest was made on information furnished by Chief Walsh from New York. Dr. McLeod is held on the charge that he was the person who dismembered the body of Susanna Geary.

Dr. McLeod was detained by inspectors at the instigation of Capt. Dugan. He was at once taken to Police Headquarters, where he was questioned by Capt. Dugan, and afterward to the office of District Attorney H. J. Sughrue, who has assumed personally the direction of the commonwealth's case against all the arrested men.

Dr. Percy D. McLeod is registered as a member of the Massachusetts Medical Society. According to Capt. Dugan, Dr. McLeod has practically admitted that he dismembered the body of Susanna Geary. McLeod was taken into court this afternoon.

HOWARD AND CRAWFORD ARE BOTH REMANDED.

Confronted by witnesses from Boston who positively identified them, William Howard and Louis Crawford threw up their hands in Police Headquarters to-day and admitted that they bought the suit cases in which the body of Susan Geary was packed after dismemberment and that they dropped the cases into Boston Bay. They were taken from Headquarters to Centre Street Police Court, where they were remanded back to the custody of the police until Monday.

SECRET HAUNT OF ODELL IS FOUND

State Chairman Watches Political Fight from Metropolitan Life Building.

The sleuth hounds of the press discovered to-day that former Gov. Odell has been in town directing the Republican campaign ever since last Monday morning. He has been hidden away in a room on the tenth floor of the Metropolitan Life Building, and where he has slept and eaten no man will tell.

Pedestrians in Twenty-third street late at night this week have noticed a ghostly figure climbing down the side of the Metropolitan Life Building. This is supposed to have been Mr. Odell making his way from his office on the tenth floor to the Owl Lunch wagon for a doughnut and a glass of milk before retiring at the Oriental Lodging House, where he sold the suit cases.

The Boston party went direct to headquarters and the witnesses were kept in an ante-room while Crawford and Howard were called up from the cells. Then Howard, the cabman, was escorted into the room where the two prisoners were standing alongside Inspector O'Brien's desk.

"It's all off," exclaimed Crawford as soon as he saw the cabman. "You've got us right."

The other witnesses made the identification complete.

CHARLEY JOHNSON, SPORTING MAN, DEAD

Was One of the Original Backers of John L. Sullivan in Ring.

"Charley" Johnson, one of the best known men in sporting circles of Brooklyn, died to-day at his home, No. 14 South Elliott place, after a brief illness.

Johnson was one of the original backers of John L. Sullivan, and for years had an exhibition in his saloon, at Midway and Fulton streets, the famous diamond studded belt that John L. called the "dog-collar" after his falling out with Richard K. Fox.

This saloon was one of the show places in Brooklyn for visitors, with its famous old Atlantic Baseball Club. He was a rough and tumble sort of man, but when aroused he was "bad" with a business that once overshadowed Bill Pook, the famous rough-and-tumble boxer of half a century ago.

Twenty-five years ago Johnson became the financial backer of the once famous old Atlantic Baseball Club. He ran his Fulton street place, the Plaza Hotel, for seventeen years, and retired ten years ago. He was fifty-nine years old.

Commencing Sunday, Nov. 5, the Second Empire will be a daily train leaving New York at 1:30 P. M. arriving Buffalo 11:30 A. M., stopping at Albany, Utica, Syracuse, Rochester and Oswego. A wonderful...
